WEDNESDAY EVE'G, MARCH 24, 1880

"TRANSVERSE AND PARALLEL." "Thy will, dear Lord, from mine doth run Too oft a different way : 'Tis hard to say-'Thy will be done, In every darkened day:

My heart grows chill To see Thy will Turn all life's gold to gray.

"My will is set to gather flowers, Thine blights them in my hand; Mine reaches for life's sunny hours, Thine leads through shadow land And all my days

Go on in ways I cannot understand.

"Yet more and more this truth doth shine From failure and from loss,

The will that runs transverse to Thine Doth thereby make its cross; Thine upright will Cuts straight and still

Through pride, and dream and dross.

" But if in parallel to Thine My will doth meekly run, All things in heaven and earth are mine My will is crossed by none;

Thou art in me And I in Thee. Thy will-and mine-are done."

The Snow-Breaker.

Interesting Account of the Instinct of that The loose snow drifts deeply between Truckee and Sierraville. The mail is carried tri-weekly, hence the road has to be traveled one way each day. During the heavy winter weather the sleigh which carries the mail is drawn by three horses, driven tandem. By this means a single broad path is beaten into the middle of the When the storms are raging it is necessary to carry the mail on horseback. Its average weight is from 100 to 150 pounds each trip. The mail bags are strapped on two horses, which are led by the driver, Sol. Rousseau, who rides a third horse. fourth horse, with only a halter on, is turned loose to break the road. This horse is kept for the sole purpose, and is called the "snow-breaker" For six winters this animal has traveled the Sierra valley road. Turned loose at either Truckee or Sierraville, he will at once set out upon his dreary journey. The winds obliterate traces of the narrow path, but with marvelous instinct the horse follows its every turn and winding. Sometimes the huge drifts bewildered him for a moment, and missing the hard-beaten path he sinks out of sight in the loose snow. Out of sight is used quite literally, for it. frequently occurs that his body is completely covered, and his head alone the surface. If he knows on which side the trail lies, he will plunge and struggle to regain his foothold. If, as sometimes occurs, he is confused as to the proper direction he possesses the wonderful instinct of keeping perfectly quiet until the driver dismounts from his horse and comes forward to point out the road. By means of a long stick the driver finds the trail, and beating a path for a few feet in front of the discomfited snowbreaker, speaks an encouraging word to the poor animal. Every nerve and muscle is immediately strained to regain the lost path, and the horse resumes his task of guide. The snow-break er seems to possess almost human intelligence. Neither darkness nor storms ever seem to daunt him or cause him to mislead more than a few feet, When in doubt he will take little short steps, scarcely six inches in length, and each foot feels for the hard-beaten ledges which form the path.

The greatest of Modern Medical Discoveries. A Vegetable Preparation and the ONLY SURE REMEDY in the world for Bright's Disease, Diabetes and all Kidney, Liver and Urinary Diseases. There are a large number of testimonials of the highest character in support of these statements. Prof. Green, a distinguished allopathic physician of the South, in an article in the Medical Record, gives an account of the cure of two cases of Chronic Bright's Disease by this remedy, and advises all his brother physicians to use it in practice. R. Caulkins, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., writes that he would prescribe the remedy to all afflicted with M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., writes that he would prescribe the remedy to all afflicted with serious Kidney and Liver Diseases. Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D., of Washington, D. C., tells of permanent cures effected by it, and says: "I do not doubt that it has great virtue." D. W. Bartine, M. D., D. D., of East Orange, N. J., certifies that it cured him of chronic Bright's Disease in two weeks. Rev. C. A. Harvey, D. D., Secretary of Howard University, certifies; "I am convinced that no remedy heretofore used or described can be held for one moment in comparison with this." These are sample testimonials.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afficient with Indigestion and Dyspepsia. BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we pre-sent to the favorable notice of invalids—espe-cially those afflicted with that miserable dis-comply becoming a specific remedy which is case Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is, REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young ffiend, H.'E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One fourth of the titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy, Reigart's Old Brandy,

In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
